A. The Kuskovo Palace was built on the site of an old manor-house under the direction of the Moscow architect Karl Blank (1728–1793). The Palace was built in 1769-1775 in the style of early classicism. The Palace is built in wood, the traditional building material used by Russian architects. The lower floor is built in brick.

B. For many days now, there have been historic and devastating floods in the state of Colorado, in and around the city of Boulder. And it's all because of a huge amount of rain in a short period of time! One area near Denver received as much rain in one day ... as it usually does almost all year. That's an all-time record for that area, according to NBC News.

C. What would you say the top predator in the world is? Lions? Elephants? Whales? People? According to Dr. Martin Nyffeler from the University of Basel in Switzerland, it's ... the spider. If you took every spider in the world and measured how much they all ate, it turns out to be an astronomical 400-800 million tons of prey each year.

D. First Lady Michelle Obama unveiled a new design today showing us what healthy eating looks like. And it's simple. Half your meal should be fruits and vegetables. Some other important parts of her meal plan: —drink water instead of sugary drinks; —avoid oversized portions; —switch to low-fat milk; —compare salt on food packages and go with the ones that have less.

E. The Chicago Cubs won the World Series for the first time since 1908, ending the longest stretch of time for a team between World Series' wins — over a century. The Cubs had been down three games to one in this best of seven series, the Cleveland Indians being just one win away from winning it all ... three games in a row.

Scotland Yard

Scotland Yard is the headquarters of the Metropolitan Police in London. To most people, its name immediately brings to mind the picture of a detective — cool, efficient, ready to track down any criminal, or a helmeted police constable — A _____ and trusty helper of every traveller from overseas.

Scotland Yard is situated on the Thames Embankment close to the Houses of Parliament and the familiar clock tower of Big Ben, and its jurisdiction extends over 740 square miles with the exception of the ancient City of London, B _____.

One of the most successful developments in Scotland Yard's crime detection and emergency service has been the "999 system". On receipt of a call the 999 Room operator ascertains by electronic device the position of the nearest available police car, C _____. Almost instantly a message is also sent by teleprinter to the police station concerned so that within seconds of a call for assistance being received, a police car is on its way to the scene. An old-established section of the Metropolitan police is the Mounted Branch, with its strength of about 200 horses stabled at strategic points. These horses are particularly suited to ceremonial occasions, D _____.

An interesting branch of Scotland Yard is the branch of Police Dogs, first used as an experiment in 1939. Now these dogs are an important part of the Force. One dog, for example, can search a warehouse in ten minutes, whereas the same search would take six men an hour.

There is also the River Police, or Thames Division, which deals with all crimes occurring within its river boundaries.

There are two other departments of Scotland Yard — the Witness Room (known as the Rogues' Gallery) where a photographic record of known and suspected criminals is kept, and the Museum, E _____.

1. which is contacted by radio
2. that familiar figure of the London scene
3. for they are accustomed to military bands
4. which possesses its own separate police force
5. which contains murder relics and forgery exhibits
6. that this policeman will bring the criminal to justice

Запиши в таблицу выбранные цифры под соответствующими буквами.
